EXAMPLE.

First, at 5*d.* 3*q.* the Pound, what is the great Hundred? Look in the Table for 5*d.* 3*q.* in the first Column (being the Bottom Line) and against it in the second, you shall find 2*l.* 13*s.* 8*d.* and so will 112 Pounds cost. Again, if a hundred Weight cost 4*l.* 8*s.* 8*d.* find 4*l.* 8*s.* 8*d.* and against it, in the Column towards the left Hand, there you shall find 9*d.* 2*q.* and so much it is by the Pound.

Note, For every Farthing that one Pound doth cost, reckon Two Shillings and Four-pence, and that is the Price of the great Hundred.

To this place the exchange is negotiated as to Holland; but the schelling there rather of more value, which makes the per lower.

* By the Par of Exchange is meant an equality of the money to be exchanged, that is to say, the quantity and quality of one nation's money is supposed to be equal to that of the other, even if they were both to be converted into separate pieces of bullion. Exchanges are mostly rated upon silver coins, and the prices of Exchanges are the proportional rates of negotiation, be they ever so large.—The course of exchange varies almost every day.

MAXIMS and RULES relating to drawing BILLS.

1. BILLS are either foreign or domestic. Foreign bills are usually payable in London and other parts of England, at single, double, or treble usance, that is, at one, two, or three months after date.

2. Domestic bills are usually payable, either at sight, or some number of days after.

3. A foreign bill, payable at usance in London, is payable a month and three days (according to the custom of London) after the date of the bill.

4. If a foreign bill is not paid when due, it must be protested in the office of a public notary, who protesteth against the drawer, he on whom it is drawn, &c. for all charges, re-charges, and interest to be paid by them.

5. After the bill is protested, the protest and bill is registered, and then the protest is returned; but it is usual, in kindness to him on whom it is drawn, to keep the bill three or four days longer.

6. If the bill is not yet paid, it is usual to go upon the Exchange to see if any body will pay the said bill for the honour of the drawer.

7. If any man is found that will pay it, he must likewise pay you the charges of the protest, and also the interest of other charges, which he afterwards charges on the drawer.

8. But if no one be found that will pay it, then the bill must be returned, with the charges, interest, &c. to the drawer.

9. By an Act Anno 9 and 10 Gulielmi III. Regis, it is enacted, That in such cities, towns, or places, where no notary public resides, any substantial person of the city, town, or place, in the presence of two or more credible witnesses, may act as such, refusal or neglect being first made of due payment of the same. And by an Act Anno 3 and 4 Annæ Reginæ, it is enacted, That all notes payable to any person or other shall be assignable over in the same manner as inland bills of exchange are, or may be: and that any person to whom such note is indorsed may maintain an action either against the person who signed such note, or against any of the persons that indorsed the same.

10. The allowance for payment, over and above usance, is different, according to the country.
